Home Invasion Suspect Arrested

On Sunday, August 28, 2011, at approximately 11:20 AM, Royal Oak police officers were dispatched to a home invasion that was interrupted by the resident in the 3600 block of Durham. The victim reported that when she arrived home she opened the front door and immediately noticed some items out of place. The victim walked to the back of the house to let her dog out and observed a black male flee from her back porch area. The suspect got into a silver colored Monte Carlo and fled the scene.

The victim sought the help of a neighbor and together they dialed 911. Royal Oak officers immediately responded to the area, located the suspect vehicle and stopped it.

During our investigation, officers found a knife, zip-ties, a roll of duct tape, rubber gloves and condoms in the suspects vehicle. The suspect also had a notebook with written directions to the victim's home. Based on the items we located and information gathered from our investigation, we strongly believe that the suspect broke into the home earlier in the morning and was lying in wait for the victim in order to commit a sexual assault.

Thanks to the victim's actions and the Royal Oak officers' quick response to the area, this dangerous criminal was captured.

The suspect is Aundrey Cortez Wiley, born August 2nd, 1982 and resided in Pontiac. Wiley is a registered sex offender and has an extensive criminal history. Willey was arraigned at the 44th District Court on the charge of Home Invasion 1st Degree August 30th, 2011. Honorable Magistrate Chisholm ordered a $500,000 bond on Wiley.
