- November 11, 2009 at 11:00 AM in front of the War Memorial located between the Royal Oak Library and City Hall, please join our veterans groups and civic leaders as we take time to honor those valiant persons who gave the supreme sacrifice in the defense of our great nation.
- Curbside leaf collection continues through December 4. Every street is scheduled for two collections. The schedule is available on Local Cable Access Channel WROK, the City's website, or by calling the Leaf collection hotline at the DPS, (248) 246-3300, option 5. Leaves may also be placed curbside in paper yard waste bags for collection on regular trash days
- Just a reminder that $6 will purchase a new recycling bin during the November sale honoring "America Recycles". Bins are available at the Department of Public Services, 1600 N. Campbell Rd. 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM, Monday through Friday.

Saturday November 21st starts the Winter Holidays with some big events!

- ✓ Beginning at 9:15 AM, a combined effort of the Oak Apple Committee, Royal Oak High School Student Council, and the DDA presents a one-half mile "Santa Scamper" Fun Run/Walk/Jog along the Holiday Magic Parade route. Early registration is $10, registration the day of the race is $12, with all proceeds going to Toys for Tots. Parade viewers are encouraged to bring a wrapped toy to donate, which will be collected by U.S. Marines along the parade route. Check www.santascamper.org for registration information.
- ✓ 10:00 AM is the start of the Royal Oak DDA's 8th Annual Holiday Magic Parade. Televised on WROK and streamed live to MYFOXDETROIT.COM, the Holiday Magic Parade is made possible by numerous sponsors and volunteers. Bring the family down to Washington Ave. to see another fun-filled parade that starts at Lincoln and heads north to Fourth St. After the parade, visits with Santa Claus will be available at the Baldwin Theater on S. Lafayette.
- ✓ The Royal Oak PTSA is hosting their Holiday Arts & Crafts fair at Royal Oak High School, 1500 Lexington Blvd. from 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM. $2 Admission. Check the PTSA website for more detail www.rohsptsa.org
