Curbside Christmas tree recycling will continue through January 15, 2010. Trees should be curbside on refuse collection day and must have all lights, decorations, and stands removed; and NOT contained in plastic bags.

Wednesday, January 6th at 7:00pm at Royal Oak Middle School, the Royal Oak Nature Society is sponsoring a presentation by professional nature photographers, Pat and Ray Coleman entitled “Costa Rica”. Check the Royal Oak Nature Society Website for additional information www.ci.royal-oak.mi.us/portal/community-links/nature-society

On Saturday, January 16th from 7:00am until 1:00 pm the “Hearts and Flowers Craft Show” will be presented at the Royal Oak Farmers Market along with Antiques & Collectibles. Admission is free. Contact (248) 246-3276 for additional information.

Tuesday, January 19th at 7:30pm in the Tenhave Woods, the Royal Oak Nature Society will be hosting the first of three “Owl Hoots”. Using taped recordings, participants will walk into the woods in the hopes of attracting screech and great horned owls. Walks are also scheduled for February 17th and March 18th.
